

Is Your Practice's IT Hurting More Than Helping?

The Hidden Cost of Bad IT

STATS & FACTS

Downtime costs in healthcare range from $5,300 to $9,000 per minute.

Average cost per incident:
~$208,600 in lost revenue + $138,000 in lost productivity.

Major EHR outages can spike up to $25,000/minute.

COMMON CAUSES OF DOWNTIME:

83%

83% of medical IoT devices run on outdated operating systems.

22%

Cyberattacks now cause 22% of healthcare IT outages.

85%

In-house IT leads to 85% more downtime than managed IT due to slow response.

The Day-to-Day Struggles

COMMON COMPLAINTS:

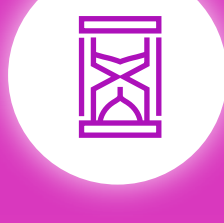

EHR slowness or login failures

Delayed software updates causing integration issues

Wi-Fi interruptions during telehealth

Long wait times for generic IT support of clinicians report IT problems regularly interrupt patient care.

43%

(Medical Economics)

Why Managed IT Works Better

PROBLEM	IN-HOUSE IT	MANAGED IT
 Response time	Slower	Immediate SLAs
 Healthcare Workflow Knowledge	Limited	Deep EHR/PMS Expertise
 HIPAA Compliance	Risky	Built-in Best Practices
 Cost	Variable/Reactive	Predictable Monthly Fee

Real Benefits of Switching

Fewer disruptions

More patient visits

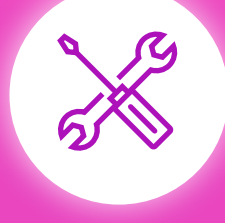

Improved security posture

Fewer HIPAA violations

Proactive support

Reduced reactive break/fix

Custom workflows

IT that adapts to your practice

Make IT a Strength, Not a Struggle

TAKE THE FIRST STEP TOWARD BETTER PERFORMANCE, SECURITY, AND SUPPORT.

SCHEDULE A FREE CONSULTATION